

Hugo on the train

Description

“Hugo on the train” is a witty, rhyming read-aloud story that has been illustrated with colorful, expressive drawings. The large print makes it perfect for children of the ages 1 to 5-. The story focuses on Hugo, the tortoise who lives in a city. He has an important appointment at the vet to get his nails cut. How does a city tortoise get across town? For the very first time, Hugo takes the subway and the bus. He discovers a world full of sounds, sights, and surprises.

With its vibrant illustrations and quirkiness, this picture book makes for a delightful bedtime read or early reader book.
