

Hugo on the train

Description

“Hugo on the train” is a witty, rhyming, read-aloud story that has been illustrated with colorful, expressive drawings. The large print makes it perfect for children ages 2 to 5.

The story focuses on Hugo, the tortoise who lives in a city. He has an important appointment at the vet to get his nails cut. How does a city tortoise get across town? He takes the subway and the bus and discovers a world full of sounds, sights, and surprises.

With its vibrant illustrations and quirkiness, this picture book makes for a delightful bedtime read or early reader book.
